Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136 (a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "insulator" of claim 10 must be shown or the feature cancelled from the claim. No new matter should be entered.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609 A(1) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Vetter.

Art Unit: 2833

Vetter discloses a plug-side connector body comprising a bayonet sleeve 50, a first indicator 180 and slots 52.

5. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mattingly et al. Mattingly et al. disclose a jack-side connector 12, a plug-side connector body comprising a bayonet sleeve 22, first and second indicators 70a, 74 and J-slots 38.

Regarding claim 4 indicator 70a is substantially y-shaped.

Regarding claims 6 and 7, the three slots of Mattingly et al. are approximately 120 degrees apart.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mattingly et al. in view of Vetter and further in view of Trompeter. Mattingly et al. do not disclose an insulator in the jack-side connector 12 nor a BNC connector having lugs 180 degrees apart. However, Vetter has an insulator 34 in the jack-side connector 12 and Trompeter discloses a BNC connector having lugs 180 degrees apart. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to modify the connector assembly of Mattingly et al. by inserting an insulator as taught by

Vetter to hold the pins for the insert 78 of Mattingly et al., and by making it a BNC connector having lugs 180 degrees apart as a matter of design choice.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Behning, Dugan et al., Raux et al., Chadbourne et al. and Storcel were cited for similar connectors.

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Brigitte R. Hammond whose telephone number is (703) 305-0032.

The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Thursday from 7:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.
